 FLOWERS

Amateurs Only. Cut flowers and potted plants can be entered from 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Tuesday, July 14 and 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon Wednesday, July 15, 2009. All entries must be in the proper department by noon Wednesday, July 15, 2009. Exhibitors are encouraged to bring fresh cut flowers each day. Limit one entry per class. Flowers will be judged on the basis of freshness. Petal and calyx should feel firm and be free of insect damage. Spike flowers are also judged on length of bloom with initial bloom intact and firm. Cluster flowers, like phlox, should display size, freshness, and still show some undeveloped bloom. One wilted, damaged or drooping flower in groups can make considerable difference. Day Lily exhibits (Division 20, Class 20) must be entered on Wednesday morning because they last only one day.

Likewise plants should not reveal faded or past-prime flowers, bug-chewed or deteriorated foliage, or a collection of spider webs. A cleaning and pruning is suggested. Green plants are judged partially on the effect that light has had on coloration and compactness of foliage. Blooming or green plants, which seem to be recent flower shop purchases will be disqualified, as will items exhibited in previous years. (The judge's decision will be final.) Special awards may not be given if entries do not display outstanding quality. Any entry not properly registered or categorized is disqualified.
